

SUPPORT OUR TROOPS

It's always hard to be away from people you care about, but our soldiers do it every day. There are many ways that we can help them and let them know that their service is appreciated and invaluable. Below are a few resources to help let them know how much you care.

Any Solider

Any Solider is an organization that sends care packages to military bases overseas for soldiers who don't receive any. To learn more, visit <http://www.anysoldier.com>.

Soldier's Angels

Soldier's Angels is a non-profit organization that provides comfort and aid to the men and women serving overseas. Visit <http://soldiersangels.org> to learn more.

HeroBox

HeroBox is a non-profit organization that sends personalized care packages to deployed troops. To learn more, visit <http://www.herobox.org>.

Tell Them Thanks

Tell Them Thanks provides mailing addresses for soldiers overseas so volunteers can send letters of thanks. Visit <http://tellthemthanks.com> to learn more.

Cell Phones for Soldiers

There's nothing like hearing the voice of someone you love through the phone. Cell Phones for Soldiers makes this possible by giving donated cell phones to troops overseas so they can call home. To learn more, go to <http://www.cellphonesforsoldiers.com>.

Afghans for Afghans

Afghans for Afghans is a humanitarian project that sends handmade quilts, sweaters, mittens and scarves to the struggling people of Afghanistan. Visit <http://www.afghansforafghans.org> to learn more.

Knit Helmet Liners

Knit N'Style provides a step-by-step knitting pattern for a helmet liner for soldiers. Visit <http://www.knitnstyle.com/projects/helmetliners/HelmetLiner.pdf> for the pattern.
