He loves cooking (especially grilling!), reading, and has been known to pick up an acoustic guitar every once in a while.
Justin’s Life motto is: “Make an Impact. Be Real. Experience the World.” Justin founded Impact Financial Strategies (IFS) in 2019 to live out this motto and make an Impact through service to his clients, to his community and to his team. His overarching mission is to create lifelong and impactful relationships and community. Professionally and personally, Justin believes that MOMENTS matter more than money. And, after 2 decades in finance (an industry that unfortunately thrives on confusion and fear marketing) his purpose has become clear. Justin and his team, with one voice, share their mantra: “Helping really cool and successful people retire with confidence and clarity is what we do, but inspiring others to create moments of IMPACT for their families and their community is who we are.” Justin has been serving UWLC’s BOD since 2014, currently serving as Board Chair. In addition to his service with United Way, Justin takes an active leadership role in several other nonprofits. He serves not only in an advisory capacity or as a board member, but also as an advisor, mentor, and advocate for the next generation of philanthropic giving and community involvement. Justin thrives on a connecting at a deep, personal level with whom all he comes in contact, and strives to be a community connector. Originally from Prescott, Arizona, Justin completed his undergraduate work at Northern Arizona University, then lived in several states before relocating to Fort Collins in 2005. Justin earned his MBA from CSU in 2013. His biggest moment of Impact was being fortunate enough to live in Sweden for a University exchange program, and it changed his life. It led him to his favorite pastime, traveling, which he does enthusiastically, and as often as he can with his wife, Stephanie. They also spend a significant amount of time supporting local causes and the performing arts, as well as avidly cheering on the CSU Rams. They also enjoy snowboarding, whitewater rafting, scuba diving, Spartan races, and other outdoor activities.
